

Geopolitical Entities and Codes

(Formerly Federal Information Processing Standards Publication 10-4:
Countries, Dependencies, Areas of Special Sovereignty, and Their Principal Administrative Divisions)

Update: 31 December 2012

1. Introduction.

Federal Information Processing Standards Publication 10-4 (FIPS PUB 10-4) was withdrawn on 2 September 2008 by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) under the authority of the Secretary of Commerce.

The National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA), as the Maintenance Agency for FIPS PUB 10-4, intends to continue to maintain the former standard as long as there is a need. At the time of writing, there is not a complete replacement standard for FIPS PUB 10-4. However, as the following paragraphs describe, a new country code standard has been approved and published by the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency.

Within the Department of Defense (DOD) efforts are underway to develop a U.S. profile of the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 3166-1, "Codes for the Representation of Names of Countries and Their Subdivisions." On June 6, 2011 the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics issued a memorandum calling for a transition to the U.S. Profile of ISO 3166-1 by 30 September 2012. A U.S. Profile is necessary because ISO 3166 in its current state is neither complete nor appropriate for U.S. Government use.

NGA is working with DOD, IC, and other Federal Government organizations to develop a US Government profile of ISO 3166 (both Part 1 and Part 2). This work has been undertaken by the Country Codes Working Group (CCWG) which is under the Metadata Focus Group of the Geospatial Intelligence Standards Working Group (GWG). The CCWG held its first official meeting in May 2012. More information may be found at: <https://nsgreg.nga.mil/geopoliticalCode.jsp>. The US profile of ISO 3166 will be known as the Geopolitical Entities, Names and Codes (GENC) standard.

GENC will use ISO 3166-1 and ISO 3166-2 codes and names wherever possible, but where these ISO-issued codes and/or names conflict with U.S. Board on Geographic Names (BGN) or U.S. State Department Policy, the USG Profile will use "user-assigned" codes and BGN-approved names. User-assigned codes are provided for in ISO 3166-1 as a recognized way to extend the code list in the standard with additional codes for national use. User-assigned codes are NOT considered to be part of the official ISO 3166-1 or 3166-2 standards.

GENC edition 1 was approved on 26 November 2012 and published on 27 November 2012 at <https://nsgreg.nga.mil/doc/view?i=2324> : GENC edition 1 is only at the country-level (equivalent to ISO 3166 Part 1). This Geopolitical Entities and Codes (Formerly FIPS PUB 10-4) update includes a cross-walk to GENC entries and codes as Appendix C.

In April 2010 a recompilation of Geopolitical Entities and Codes (GEC) (Formerly Federal Information Processing Standards Publication 10-4: Countries, Dependencies, Areas of Special Sovereignty, and Their Principal Administrative Divisions) was made available. The document was a recompilation of the information presented in FIPS PUB 10-4 (April 1995), FIPS PUB 10-4 Change Notices 1-14 (up through 31 July 2008), and subsequent changes approved by the U.S. Board on Geographic Names (BGN) Foreign Names Committee. Additionally, corrections for which change notices were never disseminated were included in this recompilation.

Since April 2010 ten updates have now been made available on the GEOnet Names Server (GNS) website (<http://earth-info.nga.mil/gns/html/index.html>). Once the GENC standard contains a full complement of entities and codes to enable the user of the former FIPS 10-4 to transition, the maintenance of the GEC is planned to be discontinued. The expected timeframe for this termination of maintenance is mid- to late 2013.

2. Explanation.

This document provides a list of the basic geopolitical entities of the world, together with the principal administrative divisions associated with each entity, where applicable and available. Each basic geopolitical entity that was listed in FIPS PUB 10-4, as updated, is included; it is represented by the same alphabetic, two-character “country code.” Each principal administrative division is identified by a four-character, alphanumeric code consisting of the two-character “country code” followed by a two-character “administrative division code.” If a complete basic entity is to be represented in the four-character format, two zeros should be used for its “administrative division code.” Example: MX00 would represent Mexico should a four-character code be needed.

Basic geopolitical entities assigned “country codes” include the following categories: (a) independent states; (b) territories or dependencies that are not considered to be fully independent; (c) some administrative divisions geographically separated from the primary state; (d) possessions without populations, areas of special or no sovereignty associations; and (e) outlying areas of the United States. The list of basic entities provides complete coverage of the land areas of the world without overlap or duplication.

For the purposes of this listing, a principal administrative division is defined as a unit belonging to the first level of administration within a governing authority. Even though all principal administrative divisions within an entity may not be of equal rank, the listing considers them as “principal.”

Geographic names listed herein are approved by the United States Board on Geographic Names, the authority established under Public Law 80-242 to “provide for uniformity in geographic nomenclature and orthography throughout the Federal Government.”

3. Maintenance Agency.

National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency, attn: SR Mail Stop N62, 7500 Geoint Drive Springfield, VA 22150. Questions concerning the list of entities and codes should be addressed to the Maintenance Agency. Change notices (updates) to this listing will be issued by the Maintenance Agency and published electronically on GEOnet Names Server (GNS) website (<http://earth-info.nga.mil/gns/html/index.html>).

4. Contents:

4.1. Table 1.

Table 1 lists the basic geopolitical entities sequenced in alphabetical order by conventional short form name. The two-character code for each entity is provided.

Note: Beginning with the August 2011 update entries listed in Table 1 have been presented in upper and lower case (e.g., Afghanistan vice AFGHANISTAN) additionally in the Excel worksheet and exclusively in the PDF. This change was not previously documented.

4.2. Table 2.

Table 2 lists the principal administrative divisions of each geopolitical entry with their codes. The administrative division names of each entity are rendered alphabetically, and include all associated diacritics and special characters. Names derived from a non-Roman script are romanized according to systems approved by the BGN. In countries that have multiple official languages, there may be multiple names for a principal administrative division. In these cases, the names are presented alphabetically by language. Approved conventional names for administrative divisions are listed initially, followed by the standard local name. Conventional names and multiple language entries are indicated by labels in brackets.

The third column of the table lists the generic (descriptive) term used for the primary administrative divisions of each political entity. In non-English-speaking areas, generic terms are rendered in their native form followed by an English equivalent, if available, in parentheses. For example, one of the primary administrative divisions of China is the ‘sheng.’ The English equivalent is ‘province.’ Some countries have more than one class of primary administrative division - for example, province and municipality. In those instances where a country has multiple official languages, there may be multiple native forms for a principal administrative division class. The language forms for the administrative division class are presented alphabetically by language name.

4.3. Appendix A.

Appendix A lists all the changes approved by the BGN since FIPS 10-4 Change Notice 14 was published (31 July 2008). The contents of Appendix A are incorporated into Table 2. With this update, the appendix contains the original content from April 2010 as well as the nine subsequent updates. The appendix is intended to be of assistance to the user in identifying the most recent changes.

4.4. Appendix B.

Appendix B provides a cross-reference between the two-character country codes as published in this listing and the two-character, three-character, and numeric codes published under the auspices of the International Organization for Standardization. Also included are the Internet Assigned Numbers Authority's top-level domain names associated with each political entity, and the three-character country codes used by the International Olympic Committee. The next update (Update 11) of Geopolitical Entities and Codes (Formerly FIPS PUB 10-4) will contain a cross-walk to GENC entries and codes as an appendix.

4.5. Appendix C.

Appendix C (new) provides a cross-reference listing between the two-character country codes as published in this listing and the two-character, three-character, and numeric codes published as the Geopolitical Entities, Names, and Codes (GENC) standard. For more complete information and cross-reference tables users should consult the NSG Registry (<https://nsgreg.nga.mil/geopoliticalCode.jsp>).

5. Additional Notes.

In some instances, the names available at the GNS website will differ from those presented herein. Corrective action to bring the two into alignment will subsequently occur.

Please consult the GNS website for updated information on the transition to the GENC Standard (<http://earth-info.nga.mil/gns/html/index.html>).

GEOPOLITICAL ENTITIES AND CODES
(FORMERLY FIPS PUB 10-4)
Appendix A: Changes since FIPS PUB 10-4 Change Notice 14

Introduction: The following content of Table 2 has not been promulgated in a FIPS 10-4 Change Notice

Authority: Names of political entities derived from official meeting records of the Foreign Names Committee of the US Board on Geographic Names (US BGN).

Source:
US Board on Geographic Names
c/o National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency
4600 Sangamore Road D-170
Bethesda, Maryland 20816-5003.

Note: Maintenance authority for FIPS 10 was transferred from the Department of State to the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA) in 1997. Despite the 2008 withdrawal of FIPS 10 by the Department of Commerce, a need still exists for users of the geopolitical codes formerly listed as part of FIPS Publication 10-4 to receive updates. As long as necessary, NGA will continue to update the former FIPS Publication 10-4 standard with quarterly change notices deriving from results of quarterly US BGN Foreign Names Committee (FNC) meetings. The specific FNC meeting at which a change was approved is noted parenthetically following each country name. Digital copies of change notices will be posted on the GEOnet Names Server at the NGA website (<http://www.nga.mil>). For questions on the administrative division class, please consult Table 2.

<sup>10</sup> Correction to Geopolitical Entities and Codes (Formerly FIPS 10-4) Update 2 (30 November 2010)

<sup>11</sup> Correction to FIPS 10-4 Change Notice No. 1, 1 December 1998. This change notice failed to include the addition of the four primary administrative divisions listed above. These entities were listed in Table 2 of the April 2010 GEC (Formerly FIPS 10-4) recompilation but should have also been included in Appendix A along with other changes not included in FIPS 10-4 change notices.

<sup>12</sup> Correction to Table 2 of the April 2010 GEC (Formerly FIPS 10-4) recompilation

<sup>13</sup> Corrections to Table 2 and Appendix A of the April 2010 GEC (Formerly FIPS 10-4) recompilation as follows: 1.) Table 2: The codes for Tarlac (both the charter city and the province), Zambales, Zamboanga, Zamboanga del Norte, Zamboanga del Sur, and Zamboanga Sibugay were incorrectly presented in Table 2. Additionally, a duplicate, misspelled entry for Zamboanga del Sur was presented in Table 2 as RP64 Zamboanga del Sur. Appendix A noted the deletion of RP61 Surigao del Norte, but the entry was unintentionally left in Table 2. 2.) Appendix A: Two entries for Taguig were presented in Appendix A. RPN6 is the correct code for Taguig. Codes for all Philippines entries following Taguig were incorrectly presented in Appendix A, but were correct in Table 2. Please note that GEC (Formerly FIPS 10-4) Update 8 (1 May 2012) subsequently deleted Tagum (RPN7), Talisay (Cebu) (RPN8), Talisay (Negro Occidental) (RPN9), Tanauan (RPO1), Tanjay (RPO2), Tarlac (RPO3), Tuguegarao (RPO4), Urdaneta (RPO5), Valencia (RPO6), Victorias (RPO8), and Vigan (RPO9).
